

NORTH SHIELDS
FISH QUAY

SCHOOL VISITS

TO THE OLD LOW LIGHT
HERITAGE CENTRE

HERITAGE CENTRE | GALLERY | COMMUNITY SPACE | CAFE | SHOP

Education opportunities across the curriculum and Key Stages in the unique setting of a landmark, historic building on North Shields Fish Quay.

At the Old Low Light Heritage Centre, we have an extensive network of skilled and knowledgeable people who can help to enhance your curriculum, add a local dimension to your topic and enable students to develop knowledge, understanding and pride in their community.

- Visits can be self-led using our facilities as a base.
- We offer half and full day pre-planned interactive discovery visits.
- Or you can get involved directly in a project linked to one of our exhibitions.

Examples of possible study areas include:

LOCAL HISTORY

The North Shields story from Iron Age to Digital Age

Or focus on discreet elements:

- Vikings and the Tyne
- Tudors and the Tyne
- Lord Collingwood and the Battle of Trafalgar
- World War 1 at the Fish Quay
- World War 2 in and around the Fish Quay

GEOGRAPHY

Maps and compasses, navigation, leading lights, shipwrecks and survivors

NATURAL ENVIRONMENT

Wildlife, pollution, the tides, climate change

CREATIVE WRITING, ART AND CRAFTS

The river, sea and Fish Quay offer a great stimulus for creative activities

REGENERATION

The Fish Quay - change and development 2020

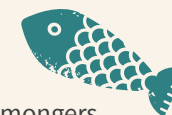

RIVER TRAFFIC

Imports and exports – what's on the river

THE FISHING INDUSTRY PAST AND PRESENT

Fish Quay visit, the catch, fishmongers, meet fishermen, history of and important role of lifeboats

Or bring your ideas to us

These are just some examples. We would be very happy to discuss other areas of study with you.
